

• Directions to Temple House, Lewes

By Road. From the trunk road network - A27/A23/M23/M25 - access into Lewes is easiest via the A26 and through the Cullifail Tunnel. Turn left on exiting the tunnel.

By Rail. Regular main line trains run to London, Brighton and Eastbourne. It is five minutes walk from the railway station to Temple House. Turn right out of the main station entrance towards the town centre. Turning right and left at the bottom of the hill into St Nicholas Lane avoids the noisy traffic in Station Street.

Parking. There is no parking at Temple House. There is usually parking in the streets in the town centre, but it is limited to 2 hours waiting and costs £2 per hour. It is hotly regulated.

There are a number of car parks dotted around the town centre.

P1 on the map is the main car park. Turn left coming out of the tunnel and go left again at the first mini-roundabout, then take the first right and follow the road to the car park entrance. The car park has an all day tariff of £3.70. Walk through the alley North Court and turn right into Cliffe High Street following it straight into the High Street. It is less than five minutes walk to Temple House.

P2 on the map is the station car park which has a fixed price of £6.10 for all day parking.
